My file

by LEN DEIGHTON
... whose latest spy thriller HORSE UNDER WATER (Cape 16s.) is set in Albufeira, a fishing village in Southern Portugal. His first thriller, IPCRESS FILE (out this month in paperback), has scenes in Beirut and an atoll in the Pacific.

on surprising places

PORTUGAL was yesterday's spy centre. Some spies will remember nights 20 years ago when these golden beaches were going black and oily and when tiny flickering torch lights brought men in inflatable boats out of the warm, black sea.

IF YOU'RE IN A BIKINI, LOOK OUT FOR COASTGUARDS

A 1942 haircut and sticking plaster on her knee leaps around on food-laden tables and taps bald heads with a tambourine. Magically it adds up to some of the best night life in Europe.

Soon both sons were dead and Heydrich had been assassinated by two secret agents parachuted in from England. It's still possible to find the bend where his car slowed enough to let them take aim.

Now the infiltration is by property speculators preparing the ground for a D-day that gets earlier every year.

Blue skies and sea tempt you to short excursions by foot, long ones by air or sea. Spies might remember that Athenian "quilnines" stood by to take over the city during the battle of Marathon in 490 B.C. Plan failed because the Greeks won the battle.

No change
VIENNA is unchanging. Sachers is serving the same Sachers Torte cake that it served a century ago and elegant couples in dark glasses and sunbats wait there amid marble and antimacassars for the Opera House to open.

Night life

THE first thing you see at ATHENS airport isn't the blue neon sign "Athina". It's the big red neon sign advertising instant coffee.

Castles

CZECH roads twist through fir and pine with the banks knee-high in blue lupins. Upon village skylines are onion-shaped steeples and stork nests. Everywhere you'll see wild cherries and magnificent fairy-tale castles.

Be expert behind your camera...

WHEN buying a camera to take on holiday, 35mm. is the most suitable, particularly if you want to shoot colour. Film for them can be bought all over the world.

ON THE LOVELIEST OF ISLANDS FACING THE CARIBBEAN
Own your private BEACHETTE and Free Membership in our GOLF COURSE AND CLUB

Of all the islands in the Caribbean Sea, there is none more ideally the dream of the true island-lover than a little 22 square mile gem of gently sloping mountains and beach-framed coves discovered by Columbus and named by him MONTSERAT.

Montserrat, the greatest of islands, and to those who have seen it, perhaps the loveliest, most healthful of them all.

Montserrat is in the leeward British West Indies. Our close neighbour is booming Antigua with 30 hotels. BOAC-BWIA flies to Antigua, which is only 27 miles from Montserrat—a 15 minute hop by regular scheduled airline.

All land values have risen in the islands, but when it comes to property which faces the Caribbean, prices have soared! On Antigua, Bermuda, Jamaica, Barbados—facing the sea are as precious as jewels. Yet in relatively unknown Montserrat you may own a quarter-acre Beachette overlooking the Caribbean for only £1,070, £10 down and £10 a month. Macadam roads, electric and telephone lines, and water piped to your Beachette from mountain springs are included in this price. In August 1964, our spectacularly lush golf course will be open for play and for 2 full years from opening date Beachette-owners may play this great course FREE!

Also free in our thick portfolio describing MONTSERAT BEACHETTES in photo and in word. Write for it. No obligation, and we promise you won't be annoyed by salesman.

MONTSERAT BEACHETTES, Dept. Neg 2, 42 Park Street, London W.1.

Maltese sunshine...

Malta's more than a treasure trove for historians—it's a holidaymaker's paradise. Sun drenched beaches. Comfortable hotels and pensions. Good food and wines... You'll enjoy water skiing, skin diving, tennis, water polo, deep-sea fishing, sailing and horse riding... strolling in the Roman Villa or exploring the Catacombs. You'll admire the breathtaking grandeur and magnificence of the edifices of the noble, dedicated Knights of St. John of Jerusalem.

Today, all you need is a sunshade; but this Maltese helmet was fashioned when the might of the Ottoman Empire was hurled against Malta, nearly 400 years ago. Even now, Malta remains unspoiled by the ravages of time. The stones and stories of a long and colourful history are everywhere, adding beauty and majesty to the natural splendour of this island in the sun.

And Malta's only 4 1/2 hours from London by air.

She's no Mata Hari but who wants a spy in a deck-chair?... This kind of girl is welcome on any beach

COOL calm. ready to catch her man—and a wanted woman herself! You'll find her on the beaches of the Mediterranean, and the shores of the Adriatic, as well as on the beaches of Britain.

She has a look that will be sought after this summer by girls in the sun. If you want to be sought on the beach top here are some clues— Follow the scent of summer flowers. They blossom on bathing suits and beach wraps.

But wear them with sleekness—stiff flowers can be the enemy of the smartest girl. Camouflage yourself with huge dark glasses—this summer's specs have lenses large as tea cups, round as saucers.

Take cover under towelling cloaks and filmy frilly shifts. Smart girls have bikinis with their own matching shirts or gossamer-tint jackets. And towelling is one of the best fabrics an undercover agent can find.

THE SUMMER GIRL dispenses with all the trappings of town life—handbag, gloves and heavy clothes. She just carries the bare necessities—matches, cigarettes, lipstick and sun oil in her hatband
